A Molder,

A Recorder

of History.

The Seeds Were Sown, The Crop Is Being Harvested

Years of painstaking effort on the part of Wayne County's historians, preservationists, researchers, writers and those involved in restoration, have come to fruition. We, in Wayne County, are bursting at the seams with pride not from just being recognized but from the fact that we are making progress toward our overall goals, the main one of which is the preservation of our heritage.

The Wayne County Historical Association is proud to announce the following awards:

The North Carolina Society of Historians, Inc.

1989 Historical Fiction Award, The Cliffs by Thomas Powell;
1989 Religious History Book Award, The History of the First Baptist Church of Goldsboro, N.C. by Charles S. Norwood, Sr.;

1989 Malcolm Fowler Award Competition - Award of Special Recognition to the Wayne County Historical Association.

The Federation of North Carolina Historical Societies

1989 Albert Ray Newsome Award (Volunteer category) for comprehensive and outstanding programs of historical activity - Award of Special Recognition to the Wayne County Historical Association.

The Historic Preservation Foundation of North Carolina 1989 Gertrude S. Carraway Award of Merit

(We thank the Downtown Goldsboro for nominating Mr. Rose for this prestigious honor.)

It is proposed to recognize the individuals and or recipients of these awards at the next meeting of The Historical Association on Sunday, November 19, 1989. We hope they can all attend.
